

Marie-Anne BARBAT-LAYANI

Chief Executive Officer of the French Banking Federation (FBF), since 2014.

Chevalier des Ordres de la Légion d'Honneur et du Mérite (Knight of the Orders of the Legion of Honor and Merit).

► Biography

Marie-Anne Barbat-Layani is French finance inspector (“inspecteur des finances”). From 2010 till 2012, she was deputy chief of staff of the Prime Minister's Office. Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Federation Nationale du Crédit Agricole from 2007 till 2010, Marie-Anne Barbat-Layani had been deputy director "Banks and financing of general interest" at the Treasury from 2002 to 2007. From 2000 till 2002, she was head of the division of credit institutions and companies of investment at the Treasury, after having been technical adviser for European Affairs to the Minister of Economy, Finance and Industry's office, and occupied several positions at the Treasury and French Permanent Representation in Brussels.